Auditions! The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby

Sault Ste. Marie, ON - The Sault Theatre Workshop is excited to announce audition dates for its December show, The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby, by Norm Foster, directed by Harry Houston. Auditions will be held at the Community of Christ Church located at 585 McNabb Street in Sault Ste. Marie, ON from 7-9 pm on Monday October 5th and Tuesday October 6th.

The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby is set in Lake Kooshog (surprise!) where puffed-up, overachieving investment advisor James Bell has had the grave misfortune to have his car break down while on his way to give a 'very important' speech. The multi-talented locals (the whole town plays the harp, for one thing) really would like to help him on his long-winded way, but fuel pumps, like certain fabled fish, can't be easily had. They have to be ordered in from somewhere else. James is invited to take part in the annual fishing derby while he waits. In the process, James finds out that he has a lot more to learn from these people than just how to fish. (<http://www.normfoster.com/kooshogreview.html>)

This production requires 3 female and 2 male actors.

Characters:

Melanie Morningside – mid-20's to early 30's
Rhonda Borkowski – unspecified age
Sienna Gray – approximately 40 years of age
Kirk Douglas – an older gentleman
James Bell – undetermined age

Rehearsals are slated to begin in mid-October, and this production will run for two weeks, spanning from December 2nd -6th and then again December 9th -13th 2015. For more
