Ned Durango Play On Indefinite Hold ...

But we have a Holiday Event For You!

Norm Foster's warm and charming play, Ned Durango Comes To Big Oak was only two weeks from opening, with an almost completed set and costumes lined up. We had an exciting cast and were in the polishing stage of rehearsals just before Thanksgiving when the government came out and recommended suspending "social bubbles" which at that time allowed groups of ten. To postpone for a couple of weeks or so would cost us a couple of cast members who couldn't commit to later dates.

That's when we decided to put the show on an indefinite pause. Only when it is safe for us to resume and when we can recast and rehearse-in two new cast members will the show go on. We may have to wait til we are vaccinated.

We know we disappointed a number of patrons who were hoping to finally get some live events. There is only so much you can do with the virtual and on line presentations. They are a weak substitute for live events.

That is why we chose to do a scaled down event that we can feel safe presenting. We have teamed up with The Water Tower Inn and Casey's Pub to bring you a delightful meal and a holiday reading of a Norm Foster one act comedy. We have two top notch actors to bring you this warm and humorous story.

With Algoma Region still in the green (Prevent) level and our added measures we think this event will safely satisfy a need.

As per health regulations we will ensure no more than 50 people per performance and we are selling tables of two or tables of four only. Tables will keep to the two metre spacing and masks will be required until seated and eating.

Casey's have provided an excellent variety of menu choices. We also have a limited number of show only tickets that come with a complimentary hot chocolate.

Our actors, Wendyllynn Levoskin and George Houston have lots of experience with Norm Foster plays and are looking forward to performing for you. They are seen here in their roles from Alice In Cuckoo Land.

With the limits to our seating tickets are expected to go fast. To book call Sandra at 705 946-4081. Tickets can also be purchased at the Water Tower Inn front desk.

The Christmas Tree

by Norm Foster

A tree lot. Christmas Eve.
 One man. One woman.
 One tree.

Who should get the tree? Each gives reasons why they are the most deserving and each seems unaffected by the other one's dilemma! It's a story filled with laughs, heartache, and good old-fashioned Holiday spirit.

Join us for a delightful Pub Supper and a reading of this Holiday Themed play
 by two of our community's finest actors,
 George Houston and Wendylynn Levoskin
 directed by Harry Houston
