AUDITIONS ANNOUNCED FOR A DECEMBER PRODUCTION!

Ned Durango Comes To Big Oak was only two weeks from opening, with an almost completed set and costumes lined up and We had an exciting cast. We were in the polishing stage of rehearsals just before Thanksgiving 2020 when the government came out and recommended suspending "social bubbles". At that time groups of ten were allowed. To postpone for a couple of weeks or so would cost us a couple of cast members who couldn't commit to later dates. That's when we decided to put the show on an indefinite pause. Only when it is safe and when we can recast and rehearse-in new cast members will the show go on.

Well, it turns out we could not continue this production. It was a fun show and thanks to a fantastic cast we enjoyed the experience. Too bad the public did not get to see it. The set that is still on our stage will now be restructured to serve our new production.

George Houston, who was a lead character in that production, agreed to helm our season 72 opener. George writes:

"I am very pleased to be directing the workshop's upcoming production of "Miracle on South Division Street by Tom Dudzick. We previously did a production of Mr. Dudzick's "Over the Tavern" and it was a great success. I've heard from the playwright and he is on board with helping in any way he can during the production. So we're holding auditions on Sept 30th and Oct 1st at the studio on Pittsburgh ave. from 7p.m to 9p.m.

The cast is made up of the Novak family: Clara (sixties), Bev (30s) Ruth(30's) and Jimmy (late twenty's)

In order to ensure a safe production we are asking everyone taking part to be double vaxxed. The production dates are Nov 30 (preview), Dec 1,2,3,4,5 and also the 8, 9th 10th and 11th. We're looking for production crew as well so hope to see you at auditions!"

Anyone who has been in a show that George has directed can tell you that it has been a fantastic experience. Newcomers are welcome.

Auditions!

STW's AGM Announced

As most members will remember, our AGM has been combined in the last few years with a Member Appreciation Supper and followed up with the ACTAwards (Annual Crazy Theatre Awards). Covid 19 has unfortunately made this impossible this year again.

To fulfill our mandate and do our corporate diligence we must hold our annual meeting, but it will be simplified. Attendees will be required to register on a contact list, and provide an email address. Then they will receive a link to enter a Zoom meeting. Please email your request to our Secretary, The meeting will begin at 7:00 PM and is expected to be brief.

Please be assured that a Member Appreciation Dinner and ACTAwards will be part of our future plans just as soon as safely possible.

Thank you for your patience.
